

News:

A new tailor-made warehouse solution for Cordes & Graefe Osnabrück KG

Cordes & Graefe Osnabrück KG have been delivering wholesale building services across Northern Germany, for over 35 years, encompassing more than 2 million different items, which are sourced from the worlds finest manufactures.

Respecting C&G's guiding principles, to always remain very close to the customer, to be efficient, competent and reliable, while providing a 24/7, 365 days a year service, meant that they needed highly efficient processes, which provided fast access and a smooth picking processes within 26,000 m² of warehouse space.

Click here to find out how a customised, future-proof storage solution was installed which ultimately saved space, while creating adequate locations for all 40,000 stored articles.